OF OFFICER MARVIN MAILEY & CITY OF DOVER

NOW Comes the plaintiff, Sandra J. White, pro se, who so moves the Honorable Court, pursuant to Fed Rule Civil Pro. 20(a) with her Motion of Permissive Joiner, in support of the same the following is asserted;

[1]. The City of Dover is were Officer Marvin Mailey Is employed as a police officer.

a. The City of Dover is responsible for his training, supervision and authorization of duties.

[2]. Officer Marvin Mailey, was present and participating In activities that Ms White, has complained of on 09-21-2005.

a. Officer Marvin Mailey, was the Officer who first made contact, with plaintiff Sandra J. White.

b. His approach was at gun point right in her face as well as he handcuffed her and patted her down.

c. There were two(2) other women at that residence at that time and neither, were handcuffed or patted down and one Denise Hinton was right behind me.

[3]. Upon his [Officer Mailey's] first encounter with me I explained to I don't carry weapons or drugs and that I wasn't

White vs Marzec, et al., C.A. No. 06-008-KAJ

Well and had an Aneurysm and major surgery, very recently.
I had major surgery to repair the aneurysm on 12-26-04 and skull replacement surgery on 05-16-05.

a. He jokingly responded "Oh your sick huh" and then he handcuffed me and patted me down, when no other female suffered that fate.

b. I suffered immediate effects [pain, aguish, mentally and physically and a fluid problem in my head] which ultimately led to hospitalization several month later. [04-24-06]

The police as well as Officer Marvin Mailey, had no legal Or lawful reason or purpose for being at the residence and my pain And suffering and violation of my constitutional rights against illegal search and seizure should have never occurred on 09-21-05.

[4]. The City of Dover and Officer Marvin Mailey,,as a matter of can and should be added as defendants, because (a) it being asserted against them jointly, severally in regards to relief sought by Sandra J. White (b) all claims are arising out of one transaction as well as one occurrence and (c) any question of law and all fact are common to all defendants and their respective liabilities are the same.
